

End of Life Journey...

Choices, Challenges, Conversations

FREE SERIES

1

Sunday, Sept. 17

Live Performance

12:00 and 4:00

B.O.A.T.I.N.G. ©

(Before Offering Another Treatment Indicate New Goals)

Local actors perform this powerful one-act play that provides insight into the benefits and burdens of treatment at the end of life, speaking to everyone on a deeply personal level about a subject that has or will impact each of us. It is authored by Jill Bixby, a nurse practitioner in collaboration with Carol Schoneberg, an end-of-life educator with Hospice of Southern Maine.

All events at: Shelburne United Methodist Church, 30 Church Street, 985-3981

2

September 24

11:00 Palliative and Hospice Care

“What’s the difference?”

“Who decides which?”

“How does Respite house fit in?”

Presenter: Tara Graham, VNA
Executive Director of Hospice and Palliative Care

12:00 Consider the Conversation

1 hour documentary film examines perspectives of clergy, doctors, patients, & family members regarding end-of-life care and communication.

Choose to attend any or all of the series offerings

<http://shelburneumc.org/>

3

October 1

11:00 Advance Care Planning

“What’s Your Plan?...Who’s your voice?”

Tara Graham explains the importance of discussing, and completing Advance Directive forms with family and partners, and how to register them.

12:00 Being Mortal

Documentary film encouraging doctors to seek a better way to help patients and their families navigate the end of their life. Based on Atul Gawande’s book of same title.

4

October 8

11:00 Living Well Through the Journey

“What role does your faith play?”

Rev. Richard Hibbert leads discussion